JUNIOR SENATOR READING CHALLENGE

HOSTED BY SENATOR ALLY SEIFRIED

PARENT INFORMATION

Helping Your Child Discover the Joy of Reading

ABOUT THE CHALLENGE

State Senator Ally Seifried invites K–8 students in Senate District 2 to read 25 books, by April 1, 2027.

STUDENTS WHO COMPLETE THE CHALLENGE WILL:

- ✓ Earn the title of Junior Senator
- ✓ Receive a special certificate of accomplishment
- ✓ Help their classroom qualify to be the one class room awarded a trip the state capitol.

HOW PARENTS CAN HELP

1. Sign your child up at: JuniorSenatorReadingChallenge.com
2. Download the Reading Tracker and Record each book your child finishes
3. Set aside time each day—15 to 20 minutes goes a long way
4. Read together for younger students or discuss stories with older ones
5. Celebrate Achievements: Cheer your child on as they complete milestones (5, 10, 15 books, etc.)
6. Submit the Tracker: Once your child finishes all 25 books, submit the completed tracker before April 1, 2027

QUESTIONS?

Contact us through the Connect page at:

JuniorSenatorReadingChallenge.com

Authorized and Paid for by Ally Seifried for State Senate 2026